Explore Henna

Thursday, March 9th at 6:00pm

Registration begins February 15th

Henna is an ancient form of temporary, plant-based body art used by cultures across India, northern Africa and the Middle East for thousands of years. Join Internationally Certified Natural Henna Artist Elyse Sadtler for an informational workshop to learn all about this ancient tradition. In this workshop you will explore what henna is, where it comes from, its history, cultural significance, the science of henna on skin and basic design elements. You'll also play a Fact or Fiction trivia game and watch a henna paste mixing demonstration. Elyse will do a henna design on the hand of 10 participants (selected from a random name drawing from a hat)! She will also share resources where you can purchase henna supplies to begin your own henna journey.

BYOD and a Movie: A Man Called Otto

Thursday, March 30th at 6:00pm OR

Saturday, April 1 at 12:00

Registration begins March 1st

Otto is a serious curmudgeon. As a retired widower, he has a lot of time on his hands. And he uses this time to fixate on all of the things that annoy him, such as neighborhood animals and all of the unwritten rules that his neighbors are breaking. He even obsesses over the delivery truck drivers that also don't meet this high standards. One day, though, everything changes when a new family moves into the neighborhood. From the get-go, the pregnant mom finds herself needing Otto's help. For Otto, however, deciding to let people in isn't always so easy. Staring Tom Hanks. PG 13 / 2 hours

Child Trafficking in Connecticut
Safety Workshop

Thursday, April 6th at 6:00pm

Registration begins March 15th

This curriculum is designed to enhance an individual's understanding of Child Trafficking. The training assists participants in identifying victims of child trafficking as well as receiving tips on how best to respond and support identified trafficking victims. Participants will learn definitions, federal and state legislation related to human trafficking, prevalence of child sex and labor trafficking in CT, pathways to victimization, warning signs, impact to the victims, and who are the buyers/exploiters of this crime. The training is 2 ½ hours and materials utilized are videos and PowerPoint. CEU's are available.
