A Book Read/Signing with Local Author Katelyn Peterson
Thursday, March 21st at 6pm
Registration begins March 10th

Lynn Callahan, a divorced single mom with her own party planning business, is content in her busy life until her ex-husband Drew, fails to pick up their seven-year-old son from school. Because Drew is a recovering drug addict, the police don't believe he's missing, he's probably off on a bender somewhere, but she knows he wouldn't relapse after eight clean years, so she hires a private investigator to take on the case. While helping Jake Connolly, she's thrust into a life of mystery, drama, action, and romance. After Drew is found, her job becomes mundane, and she misses the excitement of working with Jake, but becoming a PI herself seems impossible, even with his help. However, when a young boy goes missing and a murder suspect is wrongly accused, despite the obstacles and risks, she must abandon all doubt and let her heart lead her to adventure, love, and true happiness.

Irish Music with Jeff Snow
Thursday, March 28th at 6pm
Registration begins March 17th

Jeff Snow is a talented multi-instrumentalist who shares the music, and the stories behind the music, of Scotland, Ireland and England. Jeff's music has been described as "quiet and relaxing." Much of it is, but every once in a while, he breaks out and the foot stomping begins. Each concert is a wee bit different and adapted to the response and interest of the audience.
